

identical to the standards for licensure or certification as a social worker: possession of a Master's degree or Ph.D. from a recognized program for marriage and family therapy or a related field and at least two years of supervised clinical experience in marriage and family therapy. In the 8 states where licensure or certification has not been achieved, MFTs are able to practice if they are eligible for clinical membership in the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy which is the national certifying body for marriage and family therapists.

Although the name might suggest that the scope of services MFTs provide would be limited to problems arising due to marriage, their title merely refers to the context in which they treat common mental disorders. For example, research has shown that one of the greatest risk factors for depression is family stressors. In addition, the likelihood of relapse is more likely when family stressors are not addressed in treatment. MFTs treat the individual in the context of their spousal and family relationships. Such an approach not only affords the provider a better context in which to deal with the underlying problem, but increases the likelihood for a successful outcome.

I want to make it clear to my colleagues that the proposal we are putting forward today does not expand the scope of mental health services currently available to Medicare beneficiaries. Our proposal would simply state that when a marriage and family therapist provides a mental health service to a Medicare beneficiary that is covered by Medicare when provided by a psychiatrist, psychologist, social worker or psychiatric nurse, then the same service is covered if provided by a marriage and family therapist. Equally important, when the marriage and family therapist provides a covered service to a Medicare beneficiary, the fee paid shall be 75% of what has been paid by Medicare had the service been provided by a psychiatrist or psychologist.

Our proposal, Mr. Speaker, is modeled after earlier laws passed by Congress relating to Medicare coverage of mental health services provided by psychologists and social workers. Individuals must meet certain minimum educational standards, as well as complete clinical experience requirements and be licensed or certified by the state as a marriage and family therapist. In the event the individual provides services in a state that does not license MFTs, the therapist would be required to meet equal education and experience qualifications, adhere to standards determined by the Secretary of Health and Human Services, and be eligible for clinical membership in the American Association for Marriage and Family Therapy.

Mr. Speaker, I suspect that many of my colleagues would be surprised to learn that much of their Congressional Districts may be considered Mental Health Professional Shortage Areas by the federal government. Indeed, in my own rural district, all 20 counties are considered Mental Health Professional Shortage Areas.

The time has come to correct the oversight in the Medicare law and treat marriage and family therapists the same way we treat other mental health professionals. Millions of Medicare beneficiaries could benefit from being able to receive their covered mental health services from a marriage and family therapist. Equally important, I believe the Medicare program could benefit by covering these individuals. We have an opportunity to make an investment to improve access to mental health services for the Medicare population. Failure to make this investment now could result in far higher Medicare expenditures in the future, but more importantly, many mental disorders that could have been successfully handled by a marriage and family therapist will go untreated. If this is allowed to happen, the human toll, as well as the financial toll, will steadily increase.

I welcome my colleagues' support for this important legislation, and I look forward to working with both the Commerce and Ways and Means Committees to secure the bills' adoption.

TRIBUTE TO EVELYN PRINCE

HON. FRED UPTON

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 24, 1999

Mr. UPTON. Mr. Speaker, it is with a heavy heart that I rise today to pay tribute to a wonderful young woman, Evelyn Prince, who was tragically taken from us last week. Many of us here in the House of Representatives had the opportunity to meet Evelyn when she served with great pride and enthusiasm as a Congressional Page. I was honored to say she was "our page" from back home in Kalamazoo, Michigan.

The head of the Kalamazoo Close Up Program, Gerhard Fuerst, where Evelyn served as President from 1997-1999, described her simply as a "sheer joy." He encouraged her to continue setting and meeting her own great expectations of herself, including participation in the Page program. He shared with me recently an article she wrote upon returning from Washington, DC. In the article, Evelyn encourages and challenges fellow students, as she so loved to do, to get involved in "observing the inner works of government" and to "have fun while learning!"

After she completed the Page program, Evelyn traveled to Wolfsburg, Germany. There she was staying with a family as an exchange student as part of the Youth for Understanding program. It is there, too, that she met with the harsh fate of an automobile accident she did not survive.

Evelyn is remembered today as a talented and spirited 17-year-old. She was a dedicated student, earning straight-As and looking forward to attending college next year. But while she was focused on excelling at school, it is as a loyal friend and loving daughter and sister that she will be so sorely missed.

Evelyn's family shared her sense of adventure and her dreams for the future. Their lives were enriched immeasurably by her presence and are undoubtedly altered immeasurably by her absence. With a young person as talented, exuberant and ambitious the sky was the limit. Sadly, we will never know how far she could have soared with a long life. But we thank God for the contributions she made, the people she inspired and the happiness she created in her all too short life. I close with a poem by Edna St. Vincent Millay:

My candle burns at both ends: It will not last
the night;

But, ah, my foes, and oh, my friends,
It gives a lovely light.

Mr. Speaker, I urge all of my colleagues here in Congress to join me in extending our deepest sympathies to the family and friends of Evelyn Prince. All members of the Congressional family send our thoughts and prayers especially to Evelyn's parents, DeeAnn and Charles "Skip" Prince, and her sister Lauren.

Evelyn was indeed a rising star whose lovely light still shines on the many people she touched.

CONFERENCE REPORT ON S. 1059, NATIONAL DEFENSE AUTHORIZATION ACT FOR FISCAL YEAR 2000

SPEECH OF

HON. DUNCAN HUNTER

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 15, 1999

Mr. HUNTER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to express my strong support for the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2000, S. 1059, which includes the authorization of funds for the upgrade of Army weapon systems. I rise today to address the concern that the $3.5 million increase, which was contained in the House-passed Fiscal Year 2000 Defense Authorization Bill for software and hardware upgrades to Improved Moving Target Simulators was inadvertently dropped from the Conference Report on S. 1059, the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2000 due to an administrative error. The conferees intended to authorize this increase. It should be included in the Department of Defense Appropriations Act for Fiscal Year 2000.

THE VETERANS MILLENNIUM HEALTH CARE ACT

HON. HAROLD ROGERS

OF KENTUCKY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 24, 1999

Mr. ROGERS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to voice my concerns with an item contained in H.R. 2116, the Veterans Millennium Health Care Act, which passed the House last Tuesday with overwhelming support.

Let me first say that I voted in favor of this bill, and believe its passage was long overdue. This bill ensures the continuation of vital healthcare services for our Nation's veterans into the next century by reforming many aspects of delivery and support services.

The veterans who have so bravely served each and every one of us deserve our highest respect and they deserve a Federal Government that lives up to its commitment to them. With the aging of our veteran population, there is a greater need for long-term care, and this bill sends a strong message that America is prepared to live up to that commitment by expanding these services.

Unfortunately, there is one concept contained in this legislation which I oppose. The Veterans Tobacco Trust fund, contained in section 203 of the bill, requires that a certain percentage of any proceeds recovered from tobacco manufacturers, as a result of a U.S. Government lawsuit, be transferred to a special account within the Treasury to treat smoking-related illnesses for veterans. While I support the Federal Government providing adequate resources to the VA to combat and treat smoking-related or any other illnesses, this language legitimizes Federal lawsuits against tobacco companies. That is wrong.

As we saw yesterday, the Justice Department finally unleashed its forces on tobacco by filing a suit in U.S. court, seeking to recover billions in health-related costs to the government. The administration is proceeding with a politically motivated, and legally suspect, attack on a private industry that manufactures and sells legal products. If successful, this action will further damage the farm economies of Kentucky and other States.

I believe it is hypocritical for the Department to propose spending millions of taxpayer dollars trying to develop a legal basis for yet another lawsuit. After all, the Federal Government has earned billions of dollars on the sale of tobacco, through Federal excise taxes, and warned the public about the risks of smoking through labels for decades. It also is hypocritical for this body to pass an appropriations bill that denies funding for a tobacco lawsuit, to then turn around and set up a trust fund in anticipation of receiving proceeds from one.

Section 203 is unnecessary for achieving the objective of improving veterans' health care. It also can be interpreted to implicitly encourage civil actions by the Federal Government made against private industries, including, but not limited to, tobacco related products.

I hope that during the further consideration of H.R. 2116, the House and the other body will agree to omit section 203 from the bill.

TRIBUTE TO A HERO: JASON
SHRADER

HON. TILLIE K. FOWLER

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 24, 1999

Mrs. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take this moment to honor a young man in my district. Last year, one of my constituents in Ormond Beach, Florida, risked his own life to save another man's life.

Jason Shrader was only 15 years old in May 1998 and just a freshman at Seabreeze High School when he rescued 40 year old Edward Skelton from drowning. Skelton and his girlfriend had gone swimming at the Division Avenue shell pit, a popular swimming hole, when he blacked out and went under. Jason, who was sitting on the shore with his friends, did not think twice before he dove in to search for Skelton.

As Jason himself so movingly described it, "I was scared that either I was going to die trying to save him or he was going to die before I could get him to safety. I grabbed his foot and pulled him to the surface. He had turned blue from lack of oxygen, the cold water, and being at a depth of fifteen feet of water."

Fortunately for Mr. Skelton, Jason is a Boy Scout—an experience that taught him how to perform CPR, and allowed him to keep Mr. Skelton alive until paramedics arrived.

Too often we are too busy with our own lives to think about the people around us whom we may not know. Jason's selfless and heroic action reminds us that sometimes it is important to get involved and to do something. As the Bible says, "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends" (John 15:13).

Jason is truly a role model for all of us and I commend him for his courage and bravery in the face of such a frightening and dangerous situation. The Coast Guard has issued a special award to recognize Jason's actions, awarding him the Meritorious Public Service Award. I wish to add my congratulations and applause for Jason Shrader, as he represents the definition of a true hero.

HONORING KSEE 24 HISPANIC-
AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH
HONOREES

HON. GEORGE RADANOVICH

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 24, 1999

Mr. RADANOVICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to the Hon. Jane Cardoza, Pilar De La Cruz, Gabriel Escalera, Frank C. Franco, and Dr. Cecilio Orozco for being selected as the 1999 Portraits of Success program honorees by KSEE 24 and Companies that Care. In celebration Hispanic-American Heritage Month for September, these five leaders were honored for their unique contributions to the betterment of their community.

KSEE 24 and Companies that Care launched the 1999 Portraits of Success program to honor five distinguished local leaders in celebration of Hispanic-American Heritage month. Currently in its fifth year, this special project combines specially produced public service announcements, a five-part news series, plus an awards luncheon to publicly recognize the unique contributions of the Hon. Jane Cardoza, Pilar de la Cruz, Gabriel Escalera, Frank C. Franco and Dr. Cecilio Orozco.

Since graduating from law school in 1981, Judge Cardoza started her law career in the Fresno County District Attorney's office, proceeding to the offices of the Fresno City Attorney and State Attorney General, Fresno County Municipal Court and now is the Presiding Judge of Family Law for the Fresno County Superior Court. She is active in the San Joaquin College of Law Board of Trustees, the Fresno Metropolitan Museum Board of Trustees, Fresno Metropolitan Rotary, Fresno City College Puente Project Mentoring Program and Domestic Violence Roundtable.

Pilar de la Cruz began her nursing career in 1969 at Fresno Community Hospital and has moved up the corporate ladder to become vice-president of Education Department at Fresno Community. She has been instrumental in the development of the Jefferson Job Institute, a program to provide training for parents of school children for entry-level jobs in hospital settings. Ms. De la Cruz was named 1998 Volunteer of the Year by the American Health Association and 1997 RN of the Year by the Central Valley Coalition of Nursing Organizations. She received the Latina Beyond Boundaries Award in Healthcare for 1998.

Gabriel Escalera has been in the field of education for 27 years, as principal of Alta Sierra Intermediate School for five years and is the principal of Gateway High School. His college major was physical education; played football for San Diego State and was an athletic director and coached football and wrestling for 12 years. Mr. Escalera is president of the Fresno chapter of the Association of Mexican-American Educators and is also president of the Fresno chapter of ACSA. He is a member of the Latino Educational Issues Roundtable and numerous professional and service organizations.

Mr. Franco is Business Development Manager for the Fresno County Economic Opportunities Commission and has been with the Commission for 16 years. He is Chairperson of the Board of the Metropolitan Flood Control District which is instrumental in developing new parks, is past president and board member of Central California Hispanic Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Franco enjoys working for the benefit of children and serves as a board member for Genesis, Inc., a group home for girls that also provides substance abuse counseling for women.

Dr. Orozco is Professor Emeritus at CSUF's School of Education. In 1980 in Utah he discovered the origins of the Nahaatl people, the ancestors of the Anasazi and Aztecs, and has repeatedly visited the sites. One of his proudest accomplishments was proposing the name of Miguel Hidalgo Elementary School which was the first school in Fresno to be named for a Hispanic, and this effort was partially responsible for his receiving the National Association for Bilingual Education's "Pioneer In Bilingual Education Medal" in 1997. Dr. Orozco published a book explaining the details of the Sun Stone of the Mexicas and the Aztec Calendar and in 1998 published (in Spanish) the essence of his research on the work of Lic. Alfonso Rivas Salmon which dealt with the origins of the Nahuatl people.

Mr. Speaker, I want to recognize the contributions of Judge Jane Cardoza, Pilar De La Cruz, RN, Gabriel Escalera, Frank C. Franco, and Dr. Cecilio Orozco for the month of September, Hispanic-American Heritage Month. I urge my colleagues to join me in wishing these honorees many more years of continued success.

H.R. 2684, VA-HUD
APPROPRIATIONS

HON. MAX SANDLIN

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 24, 1999

Mr. SANDLIN. Mr. Speaker, it is our duty to fulfill our promises to our nation's veterans,
